

MARCH 25, 2015

Therefore, go and make disciples of all the nations baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. Teach these new disciples to obey all the commands I have given you. And be sure of this: I am with you always, even to the end of the age.
- Matthew 28:19-20

CALEB & LAURA COOK

DESTINO SAN ANTONIO

The weather was cold, the beaches were empty, but that didn't stop God from working at Destino Break, March 8th-12th. In ways nobody could have planned for, real change was happening as a group of college students responded to God's invitation to be not only Savior, but also Lord and Master of their lives.

Students were equipped to share the message of Christ in considerate, conversational ways using a variety of tools. Once trained, these students naturally responded right away by texting their friends, calling their family members, and even setting up times to get together the following week to meet with people with whom they wanted to share Christ!

One student, Melba, went home and shared Christ with her whole family and many of her friends. Others did the same, talking with siblings, parents, grandparents, and friends.

The twenty-four students who went to Destino Break experienced how God could use them to have an eternal impact on the people in their lives. Then, they trusted God to make that impact happen! We're still hearing the stories of how God responded and answered their prayers.

Thank you for your prayers for Destino Break. Thank you, as well, for your partnership which is helping to bring the message of Jesus Christ to a generation of Latino college students.

In Christ,

James is smiling! And it is absolutely the greatest thing ever. He's also sleeping a lot more, which Laura really appreciates. Thank you for praying for our family!

Prayer Requests:

Please pray for the dozens of conversations about Jesus our students are having with their friends and family. Pray that God uses these conversations to bring many people to Christ.

Praise God for Kendall, Chris, Joseph and Albert—four students who put their faith in Christ at Destino Break.

Please pray that God continues to use Latino college students who follow Christ to share Christ with the people God has put in their lives.
