

Rejoice in the Lord always;
again I will say, rejoice.
Philippians 4:4

MARCH 28, 2017

“Rejoice!” James says with a big smile and hands in the air. James is memorizing Bible verses. One verse he is learning right now is Philippians 4:4, which says, “Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, rejoice.”

I was recently prompted to ask myself, “Who am I inviting into conversations about Jesus?” One of the first people that came to mind was my son. I want James to know who Jesus is, to love God, and to follow him. Twice in this verse, we are told to find deep contentment in the Lord. I think part of this joy comes from trusting in the Lord and trusting that God is good. I want James to experience this deep contentment in knowing God.

As we teach James about the story of God inviting people back into relationship with him through the person and work of Jesus, we can’t help but think of all the people in our world who don’t know God. We are trusting God to use us to help connect people to Jesus, and help them follow Jesus for the rest of their lives. Thank you for your partnership in ministry with us.

A Family Update:

A lot of March was spent re-arranging our home and getting ready for our baby girl. There’s a lot to prepare before early May! Laura is well into her third trimester now, and we can’t wait to meet our daughter.

We also took one last trip before the baby arrives. Caleb’s parents recently moved to Virginia, so we took some time away over Spring Break to go visit them in their new home. James loves his grandparents, and so do we. It was refreshing to get some time in with “Bapa” and “Wawa.”

Please be praying for us, and James, as we spend out last month together as a family of three and prepare for the coming baby girl. We can’t wait!

With love in Christ,

Caleb + Laura

Prayer Requests:

Please pray for Caleb as he travels to Austin April 7th to help welcome, train, and equip our new interns.

Please pray for the five Destino interns who are coming to this conference in Austin. Pray that God uses them to reach people for Christ on the college campus.

Please pray for the Destino Summer Missions. 38 students have applied to go to North Africa, Brazil, and Vail, CO.

Please pray for us as we go to the annual Destino National Staff conference April 20-24. Thankfully, it is here in Dallas and we won’t have to travel far.
